“Research and Health: Forging the Dominican of Tomorrow”^{1*}

Introduction

The Hispanic Association of Health Professionals, Inc. (AHPSI), with over 35 years of organizing high-impact events for the Hispanic community in the United States, proudly presents the XIX Annual International Medical Congress. Under the theme “Research and Health: Forging the Dominican of Tomorrow,” this congress will take place on May 17-18, 2025, at the Montefiore Medical Center - Cherkasky Auditorium, 111 East 210th St, Moses Division, Bronx, NY 10467.

This event will unite healthcare professionals, researchers, and community leaders to address critical health challenges, share innovative solutions, and provide essential resources for new immigrants preparing for college and professional licensing exams. Your support will help us create a lasting impact on the health and well-being of the Dominican and Hispanic communities.

Congress Overview

The XIX Annual International Multidisciplinary Medical Congress is a high-impact event designed to:

- Foster collaboration and knowledge-sharing among healthcare professionals.

- Provide guidance and resources to support new immigrants in their academic and career advancement.

- Address key topics such as:

- Clinical research certification
- Professional licensing
- Migrant health challenges
- Mental health and psychosocial adaptation
- Chronic diseases among Latinos
- Access to healthcare and health insurance

Through workshops, discussions, and networking opportunities, this congress aims to empower professionals, improve health outcomes, and drive innovation in healthcare.
